

Georgia Tech African American Achiever (GTAAA) Scholarship

The Georgia Tech African American Achiever Scholarship is an annual award offered to one student by the Georgia Tech African American Student Union who demonstrates commendable leadership, scholarship, service, and achievement at Georgia Tech, particularly within the African American community. The winner shall have proven to embody AASU's 8 Pillars of unity to effect positive change on and around the Georgia Tech campus, and should demonstrate the potential to achieve even greater accomplishments throughout their matriculation at Georgia Tech.

Eligibility & Requirements:

- Must have at least 45 credit hours during time of nomination
- Must have at least a 2.5 GPA
- Cannot have been a previous recipient in the past 3 years
- Must be a Platinum Member of AASU
- Must plan to enroll in school for the following summer or fall semester
- The candidate is required to complete an application attached with an official transcript (to be reviewed by the AASU advisor) along with a financial aid eligibility letter. The selection committee will review all eligible applications, vote, and then recipient will be named at the Black Leadership Conference.

The Award

The winner will receive a non-renewable scholarship in the amount of $1,000.00 and recognition as part of the closing ceremony of the BLC, alongside the William Stanley Award recipient.

Kerry Edwards
College of Industrial Engineering
BLC '11 GTAAA Scholar

